19. I claim a fishing weight comprising, a smooth, elongated, solid metal, cylindrical body about 24 times longer than wide, said body having a protrusion free hemisphere head terminating a first end and a second end,

said first end having,
a hole closely adjacent said hemisphere head and residing along a straight, short, angled portion means for causing a spin maneuver, by said weight, upon impact with obstacles while being retrieved, said hole being integrally attached, loosely through, by an O-ring attached to said a swivel such that an integral line attachment apparatus exists, being obvious for eliminating line twist, caused by the operation of said short angled portion means, with said short angled portion, being defined from a straight longer portion, residing with said second end, by a bend along said body.

20. The fishing weight of claim 19 wherein said body is about 6 inches long and
.25 inches wide.
